RE: FOIA Request No. 19-00938-F

Dear Russ Kick:

This letter is a final response to your request for information pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, dated February 20, 2019 and received in this office on February 20, 2019. Your request was forwarded to the appropriate office to search for documents that may be responsive to your request.

You requested the following: Your agency's FOIA request log covering 2018, which includes a field showing the subject of each request and a field for the final disposition.

Attached to this e-mail is the excel format (approximately 482-488 printed pages) of documents responsive to your request. The documents provided are: 2018 FOIA request log.

However, certain information has been withheld according to FOIA exemptions , specified below:

- Records or portions of records relating to personal information is exempt pursuant to 5 U.S.C. §552 (b)(6) of the FOIA. Disclosure of this information would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

Provisions of the FOIA allow us to recover the costs pertaining to your request. The Department has concluded that you fall within the category of news media. However, the Department has provided you with this information at no charge. The Department's release of this information at no cost does not constitute the grant of a fee waiver, and does not infer or imply that you will be granted a fee waiver for future requests made under FOIA to the Department. Because we were able to locate and process these documents at minimal costs, they are provided to you at no cost.

You have the right to seek assistance and/or dispute resolution services from the Department's FOIA Public Liaison or the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS). The FOIA Public Liaison is responsible, among other duties, for assisting in the resolution of FOIA disputes. OGIS, which is outside the Department of Education, offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and Federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to appeals or litigation. They can be contacted by:
